

Reading Calendar

March 2020

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
						1 Read a book for 25 minutes and make three predictions about what will happen next.
2 Keep reading the same book as yesterday for 25 minutes. Check your predictions. Are they correct or have they changed? Use text evidence!	3 Read a book for 25 minutes. Give five facts about each character in the book.	4 Read a book for 25 minutes. Describe the setting of the book. Has the setting changed? If so, how?	5 Read a book for 25 minutes. Write the beginning, middle, end (or the plot) of what you just read.	6 Read a book for 25 minutes. Compare and contrast two characters in the book using a double bubble map.	7 Read a book for 25 minutes. Write a summary of what you read.	8 Read a book for 25 minutes. Find 5 facts in the book. Then find five opinions in the book.
9 Read a book for 25 minutes. Based on what you have read, share a story about yourself that is related to an even or character in the book.	10 Read a book for 25 minutes. Compare and contrast two characters in the book using a double bubble map.	11 Read a book for 25 minutes. See if you can find a problem in the book. How was the problem solved?	12 Read a book for 25 minutes and make three predictions about what will happen next.	13 Keep reading the same book as yesterday for 25 minutes. Check your predictions. Are they correct or have they changed? Use text evidence!	14 Read a book for 25 minutes. Find the Main Idea and three supporting details of the book or chapter.	15 Read a book for 25 minutes find 5 words you do not know. Write what you think the words mean and which context clues or words helped you understand the unfamiliar word.
16 Read a book for 25 minutes. Based on what you have read, share a story about yourself that is related to an event or character in the book	17 Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Find the table of contents and discuss how the table of contents can be used to help a reader.	18 Read a nonfiction book. Choose one caption. Describe what the caption is and how it helps the reader understand what they are reading.	19 Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Choose one heading. Describe what a heading is and how it helps the reader understand what they are reading.	20 Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Choose five bold words and find the meaning of them in the glossary. Describe how bold words help the reader understand what they are reading.	21 Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Find a chart, map, graph or timeline. Describe the information you found. Then discuss how the chart, map, graph or timeline helps the reader understand what they are reading.	22 Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Find the index and discuss how the index helps the reader.
23 Create your own nonfiction book with the following:	24 Read a book for 25 minutes. Choose 10 words	25 Read a book for 25 minutes. Write a summary	26 Read a book for 25 minutes. Choose 10 words	27 Read a book for 25 minutes. Compare and	28 Read a book for 25 minutes. See if you can find a	29 Read a book for 25 minutes. Based on what
30	31

Read a book for 25 minutes. Find the Main Idea and	Read a book for 25 minutes find 5 words you do
--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Reading Calendar

April 2020

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday	Sunday
		1	2	3	4	5
			Read a book for 25 minutes. Write a summary of what you read.	Read a book for 25 minutes find 5 words you do not know and look them up in a dictionary.	Read a book for 25 minutes. Give five facts about each character in the book.	Read a book for 25 minutes. Write the beginning, middle, end (or the plot) of what you just read.
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
Read a book for 25 minutes. Describe the setting of the book. Has the setting changed? If so, how?	Read a book for 25 minutes. See if you can find a problem in the book. How was the problem solved?	Read a book for 25 minutes find 5 words you do not know. Write what you think the words mean and which context clues or words helped you understand the unfamiliar word.	Read a book for 25 minutes and make three predictions about what will happen next.	Keep reading the same book as yesterday for 25 minutes. Check your predictions. Are they correct or have they changed? Use text evidence!	Read a nonfiction book. Choose one caption. Describe what the caption is and how it helps the reader understand what they are reading.	Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Find the table of contents and discuss how the table of contents can be used to help a reader.
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes.. Choose one heading. Describe what a heading is and how it helps the reader understand what they are reading.	Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Choose five bold words and find the meaning of them in the glossary. Describe how bold words help the reader understand	Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Find a chart, map, graph or timeline. Describe the information you found. Then discuss how the chart, map, graph or timeline helps the reader	Read a nonfiction book for 25 minutes. Find the index and discuss how the index helps the reader.	Create your own nonfiction book with the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Title</li> <li>Table of contents</li> <li>Headings</li> <li>Captions</li> <li>Bold words</li> <li>Index</li> <li>Glossary</li> </ul>	Read a book for 25 minutes find 5 words you do not know. Write what you think the words mean and which context clues or words helped you understand the unfamiliar word	Read a book for 25 minutes. Find the Main Idea and three supporting details of the book or chapter.
20	21	22	23	24	25	26

Read a book for 25 minutes. Find 5 facts in the book. Then find five opinions in the book.	Read a book for 25 minutes. Choose 10 words in the book and give a synonym (words that mean the same thing) for each of those words.	Read a book for 25 minutes. See if you can find a problem in the book. How was the problem solved?	Read a book for 25 minutes. Choose 10 words in the book and give an antonym (words that mean the opposite thing) for each of those words.	Read a book for 25 minutes. Compare and contrast two characters in the book using a double bubble map.	Read a book for 25 minutes. Based on what you have read, share a story about yourself that is related to an event or character in the book	Read a book for 25 minutes. Describe the setting of the book. Has the setting changed? If so, how?
27	28	29	30
Read a book for 25 minutes and make three predictions about what will happen next.	Keep reading the same book as yesterday for 25 minutes. Check your predictions. Are they correct or have they changed? Use text evidence!	Read a book for 25 minutes find 5 words you do not know. Write what you think the words mean and which context clues or words helped you understand the unfamiliar word.	Read a book for 25 minutes. Find the Main Idea and three supporting details of the book or chapter.			