 4. Organizational Coherence

- Parent Input
 - Decision Making Process
 - Parents shared input on Porter Updates, adding survey and effectiveness
 - Extra-Curricular
 - Offering more opportunities, interests surrounded sports and tech club ideas. An email will be sent out to parents to gage interest in bringing in coaches, parents etc. in to lead the clubs.
 - Communication
 - Parents discuss surveys and involving “remind” in communication

- PAC Member Application
 - Encouraged to apply, and spread the word in our school community

- Review CIP
 - Two areas that are showing gaps in the CIP are concerning students with disabilities and ESOL students, which is the major focus for this year.
 - Communication folders are discussed, concerning the different interventions that a student is receiving to keep instruction more focused. Authenticity focused around real world application could benefit students.
 - Trusted adult survey at the beginning of the year shows 20% of students do not have a trusted adult. Trusted adult surveys could also be possibly sent home as well to involve parents in this goal.

- Superintendent Represented
 - Kari Dinarte: shares that PWCS is the 10 most diverse school district in the nation. PAPER tutoring service is available for students 24 hours a day.

- Car Line
 - Process has been changed, we are starting 5 minutes earlier to allow students to not be tardy.
